Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What does the Veggie Slider consist of?

A: The Veggie Slider consists of a Dr. Praeger's veggie burger that contains carrots, onions, string beans, soybeans, zucchini, peas, broccoli, corn, spinach, red pepper, garlic and parsley. It comes with your choice of ranch, honey mustard, or sweet thai sauce, and is served on our signature Slider bun. It has anywhere from 150 – 270 calories depending on the sauce. You can find lots more details on our nutrition page on this website in the 'Food' section.

Q: Who is Dr. Praeger's?

A: Dr. Praeger was a successful cardiothoracic surgeon in New Jersey who, with his medical partner Dr. Eric Somberg, made it their mission to introduce people to nutritious food that actually tasted great. They produce a wide range of products including veggie cakes, breaded fish items, Kid's Little, and now our tasty Veggie Slider! ### Q: Is the Veggie Slider cooked with your other meat products?

A: The Veggie Slider is cooked separately from our other meat products so it does not come in contact with them. The grill is cleaned each time before cooking the Veggie Slider. We also use a separate green spatula for cooking the Veggie Slider. We will do our absolute best to ensure these procedures are followed every time; however in all honesty we are a hamburger first restaurant so can make no promises it will never contact a meat surface or juice.

Q: Is the Veggie Slider vegan?

A: The veggie patty and the Sweet Thai sauce are vegan; however, the bun is not at this time but we are working on it.

Q: Why isn't the bun vegan?

A: We received great feedback from some in the vegetarian community requesting this. Since then we've been working on just that—a vegan bun. We made the decision to go ahead with the Veggie Slider with the possibility of a vegan bun and hope to offer one soon!

Q: Is the bun gluten free?

A: No, neither the bun nor the veggie patty are gluten free.

Q: Is there a vegan sauce option?

A: Yes, the Sweet Thai is vegan. The Ranch sauce contains dairy and the Honey Mustard of course contains honey, so neither of those two sauces are considered vegan.
